

Michael J. Freiman is the senior partner of a fourteen-person wealth management group, Team Freiman of Morgan Stanley in Washington, D.C. They focus on comprehensive wealth management, financial planning and investment management programs designed to organize and simplify all financial matters for their clients. He became registered in 1981 and has worked in the same office his entire career. Mr. Freiman has been consistently recognized as one of the Nation's Top 1200 advisors in Barron's State-by-State listing and also recognized by Shook Research and Forbes Magazine as one of America's Best-In-State Financial Advisors 2019-2021. He is a frequent speaker at his firm and industry conferences. Mr. Freiman is a proud alumnus of the University of Maryland and is a past President of the Terrapin Club. He is also a Past President of the Zeta Psi International Fraternity and Educational Foundation and the Amity Club of Washington, D.C. He has served as a Board Member of the Field of Firsts Foundation, supporting the College Park Aviation Museum since 2017. Mr. Freiman and his wife Ann live at their home on Deep Creek Lake in Western Maryland and also reside in Rockville, Maryland.